

“Beautiful Feet”

Romans 10:13-17

As Paul unpacks the logical approach to the great commission he begins with the desired result and follows back through the process until he gets to our responsibility.

Critical Components for Spreading the Gospel:

1. The Commission:

Every believer is commissioned to deliver the Good News

2. The Communication:

We must be prepared to accurately articulate the Gospel message

3. The Content:

The Gospel message must clearly explain who Jesus Christ is and what He has done for us

4. The Conviction:

Conviction demands a choice and this results in a decision regarding Jesus Christ

5. The Call:

When one hears, believes and responds to the Gospel it will result in salvation every time

There are two final realities in this scenario:

- 1. The one who brings the Good News of the Gospel has “beautiful feet”*
- 2. Not everyone will obey the Gospel*

We must never excuse our call or our responsibility because of the difficult nature of the task

“Beautiful Feet”

Romans 10:13-17

As Paul unpacks the logical approach to the great commission he begins with the desired result and follows back through the process until he gets to our _____.

Critical Components for Spreading the Gospel:

1. The _____:

_____ is commissioned to deliver the Good News

2. The _____:

We must be prepared to _____ articulate the Gospel message

3. The _____:

The Gospel message must clearly explain who Jesus Christ is and what _____ for us

4. The _____:

Conviction demands a _____ and this results in a decision regarding Jesus Christ

5. The _____:

When one hears, believes and responds to the Gospel it will result in salvation _____

There are two final realities in this scenario:

- 1. The one who brings the Good News of the Gospel has “_____”*
- 2. Not everyone will _____ the Gospel*

We must never excuse our call or our responsibility because of the _____ of the task