

“Why?”

Acts 9:32-43

Life is filled with unanswered questions.
Perhaps, the one most often asked is; why?

Two Situations which may have caused many to ask the question; “Why?”

1st Situation: Aeneas was paralyzed and bedridden for the past eight years

2nd Situation: Tabitha, a beloved disciple who suddenly became ill and died

Ten Potential answers to the “Why?” Question:

1. Suffering comes with the freedom to choose
2. Pain warns us of potential danger
3. Suffering reveals and refines what is in our hearts
4. Pain and suffering causes us to realize the reality of eternity
5. Pain and suffering loosens our grip on this life.
6. Suffering gives opportunity to trust more fully in God
7. Our suffering serves to remind us of the suffering which Christ endured on our behalf.
8. Our suffering is an opportunity for the display of God’s grace to the world
9. Suffering can be used by God to draw us together as believers
10. God allows suffering so that He can display His divine power

“Why?”

Acts 9:32-43

Life is filled with _____
Perhaps, the one most often asked is; _____?

Two Situations which may have caused many to ask the question; “Why?”

1st Situation: Aeneas was paralyzed and _____ for the past eight years.

2nd Situation: Tabitha, a beloved disciple who suddenly became _____

Ten Potential answers to the “Why?” Question:

1. Suffering comes with the _____
2. Pain warns us of _____
3. Suffering reveals and refines what is _____
4. Pain and suffering causes us to realize the reality of _____
5. Pain and suffering loosens our grip on _____
6. Suffering gives opportunity to _____ more fully in God
7. Our suffering serves to remind us of the suffering which Christ _____ on our behalf.
8. Our suffering is an opportunity for the display of God’s _____
9. Suffering can be used by God to _____ as believers
10. God allows suffering so that He can display His _____